Luke Warm and the Cool Hands Release debut album

Independent release of Born In The Way

Minneapolis, Minnesota (October 3, 2013) – Luke Warm and The Cool Hands will be releasing their debut album on Tuesday October 8, 2013. Born In The Way will be available on iTunes, Google Music and at lukewarmandthecoolhands.com.

Born In The Way is a new Folk album incorporating styles such as Rock, Bluegrass, Folk, and sounds akin to much of the popular acoustic music on the radio today. Luke Warm and the Cool Hands have a strong original lead voice in Matthew Kaster, and it is backed by harmony and traditional Bluegrass instruments played with a Rock n' Roll attitude. LWATCH, as the band refers to themselves, have reached out to their community of Twin Cities musicians including: Ryan Young (Trampled By Turtles), Ian Alexy (Hobo Nephews of Uncle Frank), Katey Bellville (Katey Bellville Band), and Steve Kaul (Steve Kaul & the Brass Kings) to help make this project sing. The band is excited to share their music and hope people can experience their great live energy.
